General elections were held in Peru on April 11, 2021. The presidential election, which determined the president and vice presidents, called for a runoff ... Peru will hold a presidential election on April 11, 2021, which will elect a president and vice president. This election will be important because the outcome will determine the relationship between the president and vice president, as well as with the government. In the 2021 election, the president and vice president were elected. They are considered to have been elected for a second term (according to the Peruvian Constitution, the presidential term is five years, so the presidential term is 10 years). fffad4f19a
